360 ACADEMIC SPORTS ACADEMY SCHEDULES PARENT INFORMATION NIGHT

NEW YORK — With recruitment underway for its next class, 360 Academic Sports Academy hosts a parent information night on Saturday, Jan. 6, 2023. The event is on Zoom and begins at 8 p.m.

Parents of prospective 360 middle school student-athletes are invited to the event to learn more about the 360 program and how it can help their young athletes achieve success beyond sports. A presentation is included, providing important information about 360's programs, events and much more. Founder of 360 ASA, Luis Monell, and Bill Mitchell, Co-Executive Director, are answering all questions or concerns.

To join the event, please contact 360 ASA through DM on Instagram @the.360.academy or email lmonell@360asa.org for the Zoom link. All parents of middle school student-athletes are welcome to attend the event. There is no cost to attend the parent information night.

360 Academic Sports Academy is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides a combination of academic support and sports training to student-athletes in the New York City area to guide them toward success in high school, college, and beyond.
